

PLEASURE TO BE

I still remember the day you came into my life hardly eighteen, fresh and big blue harmless eyes my heart misfired as I asked you for your name oh pretty baby my life will never be the same

R: In the whole world you cannot see in the whole world you can't find This perfect girl belongs to me It's a pleasure (it's a pleasure) it's a pleasure to be with you

It would take ages to explain you how I feel my friends are saying she's controlling me, big deal! my baby's melting as we love the night away complete satisfaction I don't care what people say
